Our Home Editors Share the “Little Luxuries” Under $50 That Make Their Spaces Special

Curating our spaces to feel special can often be a daunting task especially when it comes down to the price. However, all it takes are a few items to transform your space to feel luxe (without breaking the bank). Whether it's spritzing a new room spray to refresh your senses or swapping out your old, boring vase for a statement piece, the possibilities are endless for creating a luxurious experience that feels right for you.

Below, our editors chime in on the items that make their spaces feel lavish—all under $50. Read on to see what products you should instantly add to your carts.

The 50 Best Candles of 2023

If there's someone out there who doesn't love a good candle, we have yet to find them. Whether you're using one to make your living space smell nice, as a piece of décor, or as a form of self-care (what is it about lighting a candle that instantly makes you feel like you're doing something nice for yourself?), the simple object can do so much. Not to mention that, per our point of universal appeal, a candle makes a foolproof gift in pretty much any situation.

Is this starting to sound like a love letter to candles? Maybe. The bottom line: It's always a good idea to have a stocked candle collection. We conducted hours of research on the best candles, evaluating each on key ingredients, scent profile, and size. We also looked at extra features like the glass vessels that house the candles, many of which can double as décor. We even tried some top-rated picks for ourselves, noting elements we adored. Ahead, find the 50 best candles to give (or just keep for yourself.)

These candles are hand poured in Arizona, all featuring pure soy wax, cotton wicks, and phthalate-free, essential oil fragrances for an extra-clean burn. All of the scents are great, but we especially like this relaxing and soothing option at bedtime or during a self-care moment. Lavender is the middle note, rather than the top note, making for a more subtle effect, even more so given that it's combined with citrus and cedar.
