PAULINE ROCHAS

Honor a long time ritual and light a candle

The light symbolically conquers the darkness. As the scent wafts upwards, we invoke an ancient belief that smoke takes our wishes to the gods.

In this perfumed sanctuary, flora both imaginary and real are captured. Exotic plants breathe. Forests stand tall. Balmy winds blow. A quiet flame shines light on our intentions and desires. Memory is provoked by a single strand of scent and we find what we thought lost. We journey to remote places and discover the unknown. The world is no longer bound by time or space.

by CANDLELIGHT is a series of candles exploring different fragrant experiences. No matter how far we go each candle brings us back home.

Succumb to a sweet temptation

Go back in time. Forget 'should not' 'must not' and 'cannot'. Cotton candy is the aroma of nostalgia. The pink caramelized sugar spun on a stick recalls the atmosphere of circuses, fairs, amusement parks and a carefree childhood.

Condensed milk may be an illicit indulgence but oh so comforting. Its milky decadence is offset by soothing and soft rice powder reminiscent of youthful innocence.

A warm smell of cakes, breads and desserts permeates the air. This is a time when bowls were licked clean and fingers dipped into a brioche batter. Lightly sprinkled icing sugar embellishes.

Forbidden Love awakens a sharp desire for the sensual albeit taboo.

Imagine a flaming city beyond the desert

Citrus notes provide fresh respite from the large sun hanging over The Red City. Powdery spices with their sensual warmth linger as you explore the secrets of the souk.

From hidden gardens in the heart of the Medina, the signature scent of Marrakech unveils itself – Orange Flowers. Together with sweet sexy Jasmine they awaken a longing for the Orient.

Beyond the pink walls of the city, a Berber crosses the desert. A lonely fire burns. Cedar Wood brings woody resinous warmth. Patchouli and Musk revive a profound desire.

Wander Lust is a pilgrimage to find yourself through crossing borders, exploring the unknown and discovering the mythical.

Create a canvas for anything to happen

Silent panoramas of white create a perfect canvas for anything to happen. The radiant top notes of Pink Pepper and Siberian Pine spike your senses. They elevate and energize.

While your mind expands, your soul wafts in a smoky sultry mode.

Thyme, once used as incense brings a spicy leathery note. Incense paired with sparkling top notes lifts the spirits and intoxicates.

The after glow of the base notes and a naughty touch of tobacco from Gaïac Wood creates this sensual warm woody space.

Champagne Powder is the addictive high of the ski slopes, resinous pine air, the finest powder, champagne in crystal and the memory of musky skin.

Step past the crowd

Go to a place where a select few are admitted. A place of private exchanges and intimate moments.

The air flirts with spicy intrigue.

As you go deeper in, the dimmed lights invite you to indulge in the lavish and opulent. Cypriol's leathery, smoky and carnal scent is a call to decadence. Patchouli evokes a sensual memory of an exotic past on TheSilk Road.

The evening slows down to a smooth soft note as Vanilla throws in a seductive boozy sweetness to the heady ambiance and tactile richness.

Inner Sanctum is the sacred place of fantasy within yourself. To share is optional.

Ease into letting go

*I*nspired by Black Onyx – the stone of harmony, mystery and surrender. Burning For You evokes a heady and lush undercurrent easing you into letting go. The top notes add an edgy hint of spice to the seductive ambiance.

Cardamon leads you into deep woody forests with its aromatic resinous tones. At the heart of this flame, the woodiness of Birch, Patchouli and Sandalwood permeate the air.

The hypnotic nuance of Saffron is reminiscent of a bitter sweet attraction. Grounded in a provocative leather accord with precious Oud and Amber, Vanilla brings that final touch of sweetness.

As the smoke settles all that's left is the Burning For You.
